

Remote Learning Arrangements by Key Stage – Full School Closure, only CW and V pupils attend (updated 5-1-21)

Curriculum Area	Staffing	Contingency Plan
		KS3,	KS4	KS5
KS3 Core and Foundation subjects – Maths English, Science RE, MFL, History, Geography KS4 Core and Option subjects - Maths English, Science RE, Humanities, MFL and open option subject KS5 all subjects	Teacher well and can teach the lesson remotely	Pupils at school: Access Microsoft Teams lessons remotely at school, following the normal timetable and supervised by teaching staff, Pupils at home: Access Microsoft Teams lessons remotely at home using a PC. laptop, tablet, mobile phone or console, following the normal timetable. An attendance register will be taken. Qualifying pupils at home, without remote access: If laptops are available, these pupils will be eligible for a loan. Access lessons remotely at home using a PC. laptop, tablet, mobile phone or console, following the normal timetable. An attendance register will be taken. Non-qualifying pupils at home, without remote access during the normal school times: Must notify the Lead Tutor, to authorise access to recordings of lessons. Non-qualifying pupils at home, with no remote access at all: Must notify the Lead Tutor, to arrange for textbooks and/or paper resources to be sent to the pupil.
	Teacher unwell	Cover arrangements will be in place if staffing allows. Failing this work will be set on the portal to be completed following the normal timetable.
KS3 &amp; KS4 Non-core subjects: PE, PSHE KS5 EPQ or Christian Living	All staffing situations	All pupils: Alternative work or activities may be provided to complete during this time, alternatively pupils should spend this time doing homework, reading or self-quizzing.	All pupils: Alternative work or activities may be provided to complete during this time, alternatively pupils should spend this time doing homework, reading or self-quizzing.	All pupils: Complete self-directed independent study during this time.
KS3 Computing, Art, DT, Music and Drama	All staffing situations	All pupils: Work will be set on the portal for those that can access this remotely. Textbooks and/or paper resources will be sent to pupils with no remote access.

Remote Learning Arrangements by Key Stage Level 1 – School open to all years

Trigger for remote learning	Pupils affected	Contingency Plan
		KS3	KS4 & KS5
Pupils for one or more classes must self-isolate but are well and able to work from home	Isolated individual pupils, small numbers or part of a band	Pupils at school: Lesson taught as normal. Pupils at home: The lesson will be taught simultaneously (and recorded) via Microsoft Teams, using visualiser camera and microphone if the teacher is in school (laptop if at home).	Pupils at school: Lesson taught as normal. Pupils at home: The lesson will be taught simultaneously (and recorded) via Microsoft Teams, using visualiser camera and microphone if the teacher is in school (laptop if at home).
	Whole year group or whole band	All pupils will be taught remotely using Microsoft Teams, or via pre-recorded lessons following the normal timetable.
Teacher must self-isolate but is well and can work from home, pupils remain in school	None, all remain in school	Teachers will work from home, and deliver remote lessons to classes, following the normal timetable in school. A member of cover staff will supervise the pupils during the lesson.	Teachers will work from home, and deliver remote lessons to classes, following the normal timetable in school. A member of cover staff will supervise the pupils during the lesson.
Teacher is unwell, pupils remain in school	None, all remain in school	Normal cover arrangements will apply. When they are well enough, teachers will work from home, and deliver remote lessons to their classes, following the normal timetable in school.	Normal cover arrangements will apply. When they are well enough, teachers will work from home, and deliver remote lessons to their classes, following the normal timetable in school.
Pupil is unwell and must self-isolate, teachers well and in school	Isolated individual pupils	PowerPoint and additional resources from the normal lesson will be made available on the portal, if appropriate for pupils to access when they are well enough.	Pupils will be able to access the lesson when they are well enough through the recording (see above). If the illness is prolonged, and extends beyond 14 days, bespoke arrangements will be put in place.

